HERITAGE CLUB NEWS

MAY/JUNE 2020

Hello, my friends! I hope this is finding you safe and healthy at home. I understand this has been a strange and crazy time, sometimes difficult, but we will get through this! The sun is shining and the birds are singing extra hard for us, as if they know a concert is needed out our windows.

Cindy and I have been plugging away, making plans for our year. Each day brings new information and we are rolling with the changes. Once we get the green light we are going to be set to get out and have some fun and we are hoping you are ready to join us!! Until then...

FOR THOSE THAT ARE CRAFTY:

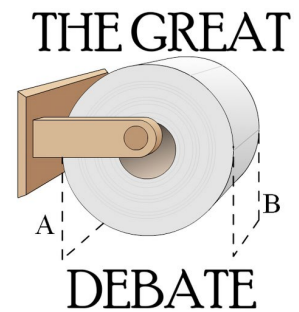

I found some ideas that are easy, uses things around the house and are cute and fun. Let me know if you are interested, I can email or mail you directions!

LOOKING FOR SOMETHING TO LAUGH AT:

What if the person who named walkie-talkies named everything?

- *Socks would be feetie-heaties.
- *Forks would be stabbie-grabbies.
- *Wigs would be hairy-wearies.
- *Microwaves would be heatie-eaties.

Q: What do you call a snobbish criminal walking downstairs?

A: A condescending con descending.

Smiling is infectious, you catch it like the flu. When someone smiled at me today, I started smiling too. I passed around the corner and someone saw my grin. When he smiled I realized I'd passed it on to him. I thought about that smile then I realized its worth. A single smile, just like mine could travel round the earth. So, if you feel a smile begin, don't leave it undetected. Let's start an epidemic quick, and get the world infected!
- Russell H. Conwell

Take care, my friends! We shall see each other again soon!

BE THERE OR BE SQUARE!

Travel with us to the Mississippi River while we take in history, scenery and shopping! Our first stop is the Villa Louis, an estate on the banks of the river. After lunch we will visit the Fort Crawford museum where the Black Hawk War ended. Of course we will stop at the Cannery for some “light” shopping before we end our tour with a cruise on the Mississippi backwaters to watch the wildlife and hear the stories of the river. Contact me for questions or to sign up.

This musical romantic comedy involves the unlikeliest of Manhattan pairings: a high-rolling gambler and a puritanical missionary, a showgirl dreaming of the straight-and-narrow and a Craps-game manager who is quite the opposite. From the bustle of Times Square to the dance clubs of Havana to the sewers of New York City, Guys and Dolls demonstrates the great lengths to which a guy will go when he truly falls in love with a “doll.” Based on the award-winning film starring Frank Sinatra and Marlon Brando, and featuring memorable tunes such as “Luck Be a Lady” and “Sit Down You’re Rockin’ the Boat,” this is a classic musical for audiences of any age!

AVOIDING COVID-19 SCAMS

Scammers have no shame and nothing is off limit to them. They are experts in changing their tactics and hoping to catch people off guard. During this time of social distancing, people spend more time on their phones and computers for shopping and entertainment. Scammers may use your extra screen time and time at home as an opportunity to take advantage. Protect yourself by being aware of the different types of scams.

- Medicare Scams - offering “COVID-19”, “Coronavirus package” or Medicare benefits related to the virus.
- Shopping Scams - creating fake stores, websites, social media account and email addresses claiming to sell items on high demand. They will keep your money but not provide the merchandise.
- Phishing Scams - send false communications from what appears to be a trustworthy source to try to convince you to share sensitive data such as passwords and credit card information.
- Malware Scams - can gain access to your computer system without you knowing. It can be activated when you click on email attachments or install risky software.
- App Scams - mobile apps designed to track the spread of COVID-19 and insert malware into the app , which will compromise user’s devices and personal information

Do not respond to calls or texts from unknown numbers or any others that appear suspicious. Never share your personal or financial information via email, text messages or over the phone. Be cautious if you are being pressured to share any information or payment immediately. Remember government agencies will never call to ask you personal information or money.
