Memories...and future memory makers!

This is not where I thought we would be at this point of 2020. I had hopes of returning to a little more normal activity by now, but that is not to be. On July 31, 2020 we got to see a great many of you with our "Spread the Sunshine" event. We passed out 111 goody bags to you guys. And it was SO GREAT TO SEE YOU! We had our travel show for the Springtime Tulip River Cruise on August 26. That was interesting as we had it virtually by Zoom. Don't forget this awesome trip scheduled for April of 2021. Check out our brochure online.

There are some really nice sites for virtual tours – we listed some in our May/June newsletter. Here are a couple more.....

Virtual Nashville Experiences – Just because you're not in Nashville right now doesn't mean you can't pretend! From livestreamed home concerts and virtual attractions to Music City documentaries and a virtual trip idea, we're bring Nashville to you. visitmusiccity.com/covid-19/virtual-nashville-experiences

National Portrait Gallery – npg.org.uk/visit/360-gallery-views/

To explore art, places, games and museums try – artsandculture.google.com

Perhaps you like to watch animals live – try the Tennessee Aquarium

Barnesville Buggytown Tour September 24, 2020

We're going to keep a little social distancing, but we're going to do a little tour. Join Dani and Becky today in Barnesville, Georgia for a little history of this Buggy Town. Our tour guide will be Tim Turner and he will show you a little of his town and the history of the Buggy making that went on in this town. We will meet Tim at the old Train Depot in Barnesville at 10:00 a.m. The tour will end in town where you can choose to have lunch at the Pastime Grill or Maxi's Family Restaurant or any of the other eateries within walking distance. There are also options within a short drive, ie. The Garden Patch. You will meet us in Barnesville and lunch is on your own. There will be a limit to the tour, so call Dani at 678-510-5145 to get your name on the tour. Let's enjoy a little touring close to home social distancing style!
